

Housing and the Urban Economy

Public Policy 275
Business Administration 286
City Planning 234

Larry A. Rosenthal
Fall 2006

Schedule

Class normally meets from 3:00p.m. - 6:00p.m. on Thursdays.
You can reach the instructor easily by email: lar@berkeley.edu.

Aug. 31	The Economic Role of Cities: Growth and Dispersion
Sept. 7	Land Rent, Land Use, and Urban Form
Sept. 14	The Structure of Urban Housing Markets
Sept. 21	Residential Segregation and Housing Marketing Discrimination
Sept. 28	Urban Transport, Neighborhoods and Housing Markets
Oct. 5	Federalism, and the Economics of Local Government
Oct. 12	Education Markets and Housing Markets
Oct. 19	Housing Investment, Consumption and the Mortgage Market
Oct. 26	Taxes and Housing
Nov. 2	No Class
Nov. 9	Government Housing Policy: National
Nov. 16	Government Housing Policy: Local
Nov. 23	No Class (Thanksgiving)
Nov. 30	Can Housing be Made and Affordable? I
Dec. 7	Can Housing be Made and Affordable? II / Review